

Karamoja Prayer Requests - March 2007

New Bishops: Please continue to pray for the consecration services for the new bishops of the Northern and Southern dioceses in Karamoja. These are very special occasions where many people will attend, some from considerable distance. Please pray that God will provide meet all the practical needs and provide peace for the organisers. Please also pray for Rev. James Campbell and Rev. John Ellison who will represent Alton Deanery at one of these events each.

Please continue to pray that Karamoja's two future bishops (Rev. Joseph Abura and Rev. James Nasak) will continue to seek God's guidance as they meet, discuss and reflect on ways for the two dioceses to work together.

Visit: Kennett Westmacott, chairman of the Alton Deanery Link, and Nick Ratcliff from Chillham Church, will be in Karamoja from 19th to 29th March. They plan to meet up with the two future bishops to find out how we can help both dioceses. Please pray for this trip as the itinerary is planned.

Resources: The new diocese in the North has few resources to equip itself. The Rev. James Nasak hopes to run a retreat for all the clergy in the Northern diocese straight after his consecration on 1st July. This will be an excellent opportunity to encourage the pastors who have been without direct leadership for such a long time. Please pray that the resources needed for this become available.

Development: The development officer, Nelson Owilli, will now be assisting two bishops rather than just one. Please pray that he will be able to balance the workload and various priorities. On a personal note, Nelson has asked us to pray that God will continue to provide the funds needed for his children to continue in education.

Compassion, a charity that organises child sponsorship, hopes to set up an office in Karamoja. Please pray for God's guidance and for communication to be set up with the Compassion office in Kampala.
